“ First I want to say how sorry I am for the family, and that my heart is breaking for and with each of you. I've known Becky my whole life and there isn't a thing I wouldn't do for her, or one of her loved ones. Becky had a heart of gold, and would be the first person to help anyone she could. I watched her suffer so many heart breaks, I've seen her hit rock bottom, but still picking herself up, moving on, stronger than before. She loved with her whole heart, and always stood for what was right, even if she was standing alone. I was blessed for the time I was given to spend with her as an adult, our daily phone calls, and messages. I will always have a whole in my heart, but I have peace that I know she is at peace, and she is free. It's going to be so hard for all of us to overcome this, but remembering who and what Becky stood for, and for each of us to be better people because of her would make her proud.

A short story.. While she was in the hospital getting ready for surgery, a lady and her mother were walking by waiting for surgery as well. Becky jumped out of her bed and went out to talk to them. Complete strangers, Becky asked if she could pray for them, grab hands, and prayed for them as they await surgery. This was the Becky I will remember. It wasn't about her, but bringing peace to someone else.

Today I pray for that same peace and comfort for each of you, and Becky will live on though each of us, so do good, be kind, be forgiving, and be understanding to one another. Love like Becky would have loved! My sister by choice I ask that you rest in peace until I see you again. Watch over us!
