Calvin was born in Delta, Iowa, March 20, 1926, the son of Cary and Mabel Lundy Sheeley. He was united in marriage to Lucille Cowman, July 25, 1950, in Oskaloosa. He worked as a mechanic at Cox Service Station for a few years. He and Lucille moved to Ottumwa in 1965, and he worked for Baird Radio and T.V. Following Glen Baird's retirement, Calvin purchased the business and moved it to his home which he ran until he retired in 1995. His memory is honored by his wife Lucille, his children, Christine (Larry)

DePenning of Ottumwa, Greg Sheeley, Michael (Mary) Sheeley, Robert Sheeley, Don (Rose) Sheeley all of Ottumwa, Bryan Sheeley of Oregon, and Patrick Sheeley of Clarinda, Iowa, 14 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents, three brothers, John, Phillip, and Bill Sheeley, and two sons, Ricky and Willard Sheeley.

Mr. Sheeley entered the U.S. Navy during WWII and served in the South Pacific. He then attended Radio School in Great Lakes, Illinois.

He graduated from Oskaloosa High School.

His hobbies included coin collecting, gardening, fishing, music and genealogy. He was a member of the VFW in Ottumwa.

Memorials may be made in his name.
