Clarys Appleget, 103, formerly of the Hedrick and Ollie communities, passed away on Tuesday, March 15, 2011, at Keokuk County Health Care Center in Sigourney, Iowa. Clarys was born September 22, 1907, the daughter of Frank and Elsa Marie Snakenberg Moore, in Keokuk County, Iowa. She graduated from Sigourney High School in 1925, and attended normal training at Iowa State Teachers College. She taught in country schools in the Sigourney area for two years. She married Dale Appleget on May 7, 1927, in Oskaloosa, Iowa.

Following marriage, Clarys was a homemaker, raised her family, and helped her husband on their farm near Ollie, Iowa. She enjoyed embroidery, and focused upon her church, participating in 44 mission trips in the Appalachians with Red Bird Missions. She was a very passionate member of Eastern Star and the United Methodist Women. Clarys worked with the Keokuk County Hospice for several years. She also enjoyed gardening.

Clarys is survived by two sons: John (Mary) Appleget, of Williamsburg, Iowa; and Jim Appleget of Mitchellville, Iowa; a daughter-in-law, Lois (Paul) Appleget of Waukee, Iowa; seven grandchildren; nine great-grandchildren; 17 great-great-grandchildren; and many nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her husband, Dale, in 1981; a son, Paul Appleget; a granddaughter, Mary Charline Appleget; a daughter-in-law, Lois (Jim) Appleget; her parents; a sister, LaRue Jacobs; and two brothers, Jim and Richard Moore.

Memorials may be made in her name to the Hedrick-Martinsburg United Methodist Church.
