

Dorothy Glick

March 10, 1927 - August 25, 2011

Iowa City, Iowa

Dorothy "Dot" Glick passed away August 25th, 2011 at Briarwood Healthcare Center in Iowa City, after a lengthy battle with lung cancer. Dot faced many health challenges in recent years but remained a strong and independent personality to the end of her life.

Dot was born on March 10, 1927 on a farm near Pekin, Ia to James and Hilda Douglas. On December 6th, 1944, Dot married Carl Glick. They lived on a farm near Hedrick for most of their lives. Dot moved to Fairfield after Carl's death in 1989 and lived there until retiring in 1992. Dot moved to Iowa City in 1995 to be closer to her daughter and son-in-law.

Dot had many interests throughout her life but especially enjoyed sewing, baking, gardening and cooking. She will be remembered for many delicious meals, homemade Christmas candies, beautiful quilts, crocheted afghans, and many beautiful flowers. Dot was active in the Hedrick chapter of Eastern Star, serving as Worthy Matron in 1973 and 1974.

Dot loved watching sports on television with Hawkeye basketball and Nascar racing among her favorites. Dot also loved the Game Show Network and especially the show Lingo. Country music was a lifelong love and David Church brought her many hours of enjoyment. Her biggest pleasure in life was spending time with family and friends and enjoying her “grand dogs”.

Dot is survived by her daughter and son-in-law, Carla and Steve Clark of Coralville and Sadie, (her “grand dog”) along with two sisters, Donna Soeten of Medford, Or. and Ann Bottorff of Moline, Il.

She was preceded in death by her husband Carl, her parents, a brother, William Douglas, and two sisters, Martha Sieren and Betty Greene along with her dogs Brandy and Jason and “grand dogs” Emily and Maddie.

At Dot’s request there will be no services. Memorials can be made to Iowa City Hospice.

March 10, 1927 – August 25, 2011 “The dash between the dates represents all the time she spent on earth. Only those who knew and loved her, know what that little line is worth.”