Jerry Marion Burtlow was born the son of Gerald & Dorothy Fleming Burtlow on June 12, 1954, in Iowa City, Iowa. Jerry attended the Hedrick High School. In 1973 he enlisted in the U.S. Army where he was stationed in California and served in the Philippine Islands as a machine gun operator aboard a helicopter. He was united in marriage to Carol Ann Burk on December 20, 1980 at the Calvary Baptist Church in Des Moines, Iowa.

His favorite T.V. shows were Gunsmoke, Sanford and Son, Bonanza, and Andy Griffith. He enjoyed hunting, fishing, and being a grandpa. Grandpa was his name, spoiling was his game. Jerry will be remembered as the type of guy who would give you the shirt off his back. He was notable for telling his children "where there's a will, there's a way so never be afraid to ask for help."

Jerry will be remembered by his mother, Dorothy of Hedrick, three sons, Joe (Rhianna) Burk of Montezuma, Jerry Jr. Burtlow (Jessica Barnard) of Montezuma, and Porter Burtlow (Brittany Audas) of Montezuma, daughter

Tanya (Matthew) McPherson of Montezuma, two brothers, Sidney Burtlow of Hedrick, and Gary (Mary) Burtlow of Waterloo. Jerry was also blessed with nine grandchildren and another one expected in August.
