Keith Ward Clark, the only son of Faye and Gladys Grove Clark, was born near Delta, IA on January 28, 1918. He attended school at Delta and Barnes City. On June 15, 1941, Keith was united in marriage to Dorothy I. Pfannebecker. He farmed for several years in the Delta area and also worked at the John Deere Ottumwa Works for 25 years, retiring in 1981. Keith was a member of the Central United Methodist Church in Oskaloosa, United Auto Workers Local #74 and the John Deere Bowling League. He enjoyed fishing, card games and was an avid camper and pool player. He had traveled extensively across the United States and had been to Europe three different times. An avid St. Louis Cardinals and Iowa Hawkeyes fan, Keith enjoyed baseball, football, college basketball and taking his grandchildren on vacations and to amusement parks. He also enjoyed antique tractors and the "Greater Southeast Iowa Tractor Ride." Keith spent a great deal of time gardening and taking care of his lawn and was a man who loved God and his Church family.

Keith's memory is honored by his son, Leland (Diane) Clark of Fremont; his daughter, Kathy Clark of Tempe, AZ; four grandchildren, Tina Michelle Gallagher, David Ryan Clark, Phillip Clark Estes and Christina Elane Estes; and four great-grandchildren, Corbin Shawn Gallagher, Chase Robert Gallagher, Natalie Joella Clark and Cole Ryan Clark. He was preceded in death by his parents and his wife Dorothy on November 22, 2006.

Memorials may be made to Wapello County Hospice.
