“ I remember Grandma Lois was always happy to see me and was very patient with me trying to "help" around the farm when I was little. I remember her goats, chickens and geese all over. I remember "Shep", her very friendly but very excitable collie, his fur was full of cockleburs, but it was like his armor against the coyotes that would try to get a meal out of the other animals on the farm. I have such indelible memories of Grandma and family meals at her house. I remember her dinner rolls smelling wonderful. I'm sure the peas I put in my nose as a joke were grown right out there as well. Love you Grandma.
