“ To my cousins Boyd, Larry, Paul, and Susan --

I loved your Mother, my Aunt Mary Belle. She was always sweet, kind, and funny. It was such a blast getting to spend time with all of you growing up and occasionally over the years as adults. Every single time I saw Aunt Mary Belle, she had Susan with her, from the time Susan was small to the very last time we were together at Angela's home in Oskaloosa. The loss of my Dad too young was very hard, but Aunt Mary Belle reminded me of him every time I saw her, and that always made me smile inside. She, Susan, and I would be laughing one minute and crying the next. We had a bond that never wavered. Aunt Mary Belle will remain in my heart and memory always. She lived a wonderful, long, and healthy life and was a woman to admire and look up to. Rest in peace, my Dear Aunt Mary Belle. I love you always.

“ All of us Costers adored Aunt Mary Belle. She was without doubt the hardest working person I've ever known, and always lovely, full of advice, and inadvertently hilarious. I absolutely loved going to her house to see her and eat the chocolate chip cookies she always had in the cookie jar. She always had time for me, and always gave me a giant glass of cold water after working in the field on hot summer days. And the Crosby cousins, of course, with your dune buggies and choppers and three-wheelers and (seeming) wildness - how I have looked up to you all! I never knew what to expect when I came over, but I knew whatever it was, it was going to be exotic. I will never forget Susan singing with Abba on the radio in the pickup after walking beans, or finding little Jaws (the puppy) whom she adopted. And the time Paul fell out of the hay mow and almost was run over by Dad. And Mike with his long hair, bell-bottoms and motorcycles. And Larry renaming himself Super-Wrench, which I always thought was hilarious as well as true. And Boyd, always thoughtful and in control and planning for the future. And just the general rambunctiousness and humor of the whole clan - it was a zoo. So was the Coster household, but it was a different kind of a zoo in which I lived every day, so never as interesting! I don't know how Aunt Mary Belle managed all of the drama. Yet again, she could be a little dramatic herself from time to time, and how the tears could flow! (This is a Coster trait, I think.) She had a long and happy life. I am glad I got to be a part of it.

With love to you all,

“ Today my heart is filled with heavy sadness after hearing of Marybelle's passing, I am only sad for myself, but I am thrilled for Marybelle for I know she is now with her King. . I considered Marybelle a very dear friend, but she was more like family to me and my family. Over the years, Marybelle has been extremely kind to my family and myself. Marybelle's faith in God was very strong and she served as an inspiration to those who knew her. I know she has inspired me and reaffirmed my faith in God. I have always said that God has a special place in Heaven waiting for Marybelle when her time came to go home. I will deeply miss our long talks over the phone and seeing her smiling face at my shows and I know this 'ol world will never quite seem the same. So Marybelle, until we meet again, fly away on wings of angels. Rest in eternal peace...
