

Moses J. Hoskins

February 16, 1923 - February 12, 2005

Marshalltown, Iowa

Visitation: Open visitation will begin at 1:00 PM on Tuesday at the church and continue until the service time. February 15, 2005 at College Avenue Friends Church in Oskaloosa.

Funeral Service: 2:30 PM February 15, 2005 at College Avenue Friends Church in Oskaloosa.

Interment: Forest Cemetery in Oskaloosa.

Moses J. Hoskins, 81, a resident of Grandview Heights in Marshalltown, IA for the past two years and formerly of Fremont, IA, went to be with the Lord on Saturday, February 12th, 2005. Funeral services will be held at 2:30 PM on Tuesday, Feb. 15th at the College Avenue Friends Church in Oskaloosa with Pastor Kelly Kellum and Pastor Phil King officiating. Burial will follow at Forest Cemetery in Oskaloosa. Open visitation will begin at 1:00 PM on Tuesday at the church and continue until service time. Immediately following the burial, the family will be present from 4 to 6 PM in the church fellowship hall to greet friends and share light refreshments. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be given to the Iowa Yearly Meeting of Friends Capital Campaign for the encouragement of leadership training.

Moses was born on February 16th, 1923 on the family farm near Fremont, IA to Otis and Mary Hazel Cook Hoskins. He took over the farm as an adult and continued to farm until his retirement. He also worked for many years at the McCurdy Seed Company in Fremont. Moses was united in marriage to Sybil Jone of South China, Maine on August 27th, 1949. He was an active lifetime member of the College Avenue Friends Church.

His memory is honored by his wife Sybil, his two daughters and their husband, Marion and Steve Channell of Tucson, AZ and Margaret and John Good of Union, IA, his grandson, Isaac Good, also of Union, a brother, Ellis Hoskins and wife Elva of Springville, IA, and a sister-in-law, Helen Hoskins of Oskaloosa. Moses was preceded in death by his brother Joseph.