Phyllis Audrey Van Winkle, age 89, passed away peacefully on August 5, 2006 in Albuquerque, NM. Her husband Delmer V. Van Winkle, and her son, John Paul Van Winkle, preceded her in death. Her daughters Phyllis Ann Van Winkle, and Bernice Kae Sanchez and her husband Paul A. Sanchez, grandchildren, Richard Montoya, Marc Montoya and his wife LeDawn, Keith Sanchez and his wife Abigail, and three great-grandchildren, Lane Montoya, Isaac Montoya and Madison Montoya, sisters Alice Smith and Roberta Petra, and brother Frank Fairchild survive her. She was united in marriage to Delmer Van Winkle on May 1, 1943 and lived in Ottumwa until 1960 when the family moved to Albuquerque due to John Paul's health.

Mrs. Van Winkle worked at various jobs during her life but the most important job to her was being a good homemaker, wife and mother. She took much joy in her family and was always doing something to bring happiness to others.

Services were held for her August 8, 2006 at the French Mortuary in Albuquerque, NM, with cremation following per her wishes. Graveside services will be held at the West View Cemetery in Kirksville, IA, on June 9th, 2007 at 3:00 pm. Her daughters will be at the Fremont Funeral Chapel at 1:30 pm to meet with family and friends and also invite them to the Fremont Community Center for refreshments following the services.
