“ I am incredibly sorry for your loss. Amy and I will be praying for your family and hope that you are comforted especially during this difficult time. I will be thinking about all the years spent with Brett on the baseball diamond, working together in the corn fields and an entire childhood doing life with the entire Robinson Family. I feel very far away from home right now but my heart is with you.

“ We truly regret not being able to attend the services but felt compelled to pay our respects.

“Bully” was an incredibly warm-hearted man and a great friend. In his memory, and out of immense gratitude for his friendship, we have made a donation to the Stead Family Children’s Hospital at the University of Iowa.

Hopefully, we’ll make it back to Kinnick sometime soon, and when we wave to the children, we’ll look a little higher and wave to Bully, too.

Heartfelt condolences,
