

Roger L. "Chico" Cavin

May 7, 1941 - August 7, 2003

Fairfield, Iowa

Visitation: open after 10:00 A.M. family present from 6:00 until 8:00 P.M.
August 13, 2003 at Fremont Funeral Chapel

Interment: The body will be cremated and interment of ashes will be at a later date.

Roger L. "Chico" Cavin age 62, of Ollie passed away Thursday, August 7th, 2003 at the Jefferson County Hospital in Fairfield, Iowa. Roger was born May 7th, 1941 in Ollie, Iowa to Frank and Bessie McLain Cavin. He graduated from the Ollie Consolidated High School. After graduating he started working at Amana Refrigeration in Amana and then worked at John Deere in Ottumwa, he was most recently employed at Fesler Auto Mall in Fairfield.

He was employed as a night marshal in Ollie, Iowa for several years. He was very involved in sports and especially in helping his grandson Shannon. He was a member of the Pekin Sports Program. His hobbies included being in parades, entertaining people, building floats, gardening, hunting and fishing and finding morel mushrooms.

Roger's memory is honored by his daughter; Shirley Conne, three sisters; Rose Mahan, Frances Peart, and Shirley Murray. Two grandchildren; Shawna and Amanda and four great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents; his wife Sue; and his grandson Shannon.

Memorials may be made in his name and left at the Fremont Funera Chapel.