“ I am saddened to here of Shirley's passing . I went to see her at serenity house this last spring. I told her I was Sandy Alveta's granddaughter and she looked at me with a big smile. I said Alveta Boggeess again and Shirley said she's a nice lady . Shirley talked a bit to me even told me to becareful of the men on the train that deliver the water , she told me twice and calling me lady and saying now you listen ! I kissed her hand and told her I will listen she smiled. Then I told her I know Melvin , Oh her smile shined so big and she said " I love Him" while we were holding hands . We sat quite a bit and I let her know I had to go , I kissed her forehead and said goodbye.

Melvin and Family may God hold you tight.

Love Sandy

“ I remember Shirley, and Melvin, from clear back when I was a little girl in Wright. I went to the Wright Union Church with them for several years. I remember Shirley as a wonderful Christian woman, even in seeing her in more recent years. She will be greatly missed by many. My thoughts and prayers are with the Reed family.
