Steve Davis

Hedrick. Stephen James Davis, 81, of Hedrick, died Monday, November 25, 2024, at the MHP Hospice Serenity House in Oskaloosa. He was born April 29, 1943, in Ottumwa, Iowa, the son of David Eugene "Gene" and Doris Mae Lynn Davis. He graduated from Hedrick High School with the class of 1961. On March 4, 1960, he was united in marriage to Faye Johnston at the Martinsburg United Methodist Church in Martinsburg, Iowa. Following graduation, he went to work for a short time on the family farm. He started his career as a semi driver at Dickey Transport and drove for them for several years. Later he purchased his own semi and worked as an owner operator for many trucking companies for many years. In 2000, he sold his semi and went to work driving semi for Wal-Mart. He retired from Wal-Mart in 2012 and helped his nephew Scott haul grain during harvest. His trucking career took him all over the country, but his heart never left the farm. For over 54 years he was an active member of the Hedrick

Community Church. He gave selflessly of his talents to the church, teaching Sunday School, leading youth group, filling in as minister, and church leadership. It is safe to say that Steve's name was at the top of the "to call" list if anything needed done at the church.

He was a talented musician he played the guitar and wrote his own music. He enjoyed gardening, feeding the birds and listening to music. He was a talented handyman and could often have a solution to a problem before Google or YouTube could offer a suggestion.

Davis of Anchorage, Alaska, Larry Davis of Ottumwa, Jeff (Lily Tang) Davis of Hartselle,

“ I did not know Steve until 6 grade in Hedrick, but we became great friends over the years, staying over night with each other. Later, working on our 50&51 fords together. We destroyed a Model A in one of the fields at the farm. Also sharing the backfield in our 1960 winning football team. We did not stay in touch much after we went our separate ways, however will miss you at our class réunions. God bless Love you man.
