“ Susann was a distant relative of mine. Her parents lived right up the road from my grandparents where I spent a lot of time. Her daughter, Linda & I grew up together. My sympathy to Trudy, Danny, & all the family

“ When I was little I use to always spend a few weeks with Granny during the summer. She had a red mustang car, we use to cruise the square in Milan like two teenagers. When we came to a stop sign I would say "floor it" and boy let me tell you she would. That car would lay black marks, we would laugh and laugh. We would do that all the way around the square

U use to tell her when we would come to a stop sign and stop to "floor it" n let me tell you she did. That cars tires would absolutely lay rubber. Granny and I would so hard. We would do that all around the square. I have so many WONDERFUL memories of her, I will cherish them in my heart forever. I love you Granny.
