

Wanda Robertson

February 12, 1942 - March 13, 2008

Visitation: 2:00PM to 6:00 PM March 16, 2008 at Fremont Funeral Chapel

Funeral Service: 10:00 AM March 17, 2008 at Fremont Funeral Chapel

Interment: New Haven Cemetery, near Keota

Wanda Roberston was born February 12, 1942 in Pocahontas, Arkansas the daughter of Ruby Bell Scott. She was united in marriage to Terry Robertson April 7, 1972 in Pocahontas, Arkansas. The two of them moved to Scott City, Kansas where they resided until 1976 when they relocated to the Oskaloosa area eventually settling in Hedrick in 1987. Wanda was a dedicated homemaker she enjoyed sewing, cooking, shoe shopping, and watching birds especially hummingbirds. Above all she enjoyed spending time with her family.

Wanda had a wild sense of humor and enjoyed life. She will be remembered most for always being there for her family. Her memory will be honored by two daughters, Lisa Ann (Rich) Wilkening of Sigourney, and Laura Ranee (David) Klima of Fremont, three grandchildren, Terry Allen Wilkening, Cody James Klima and Tyler Clinton Klima. Special friends include Barb and Max Curry and family, Lynn and LaVerne Reese and family, Dean and Debbie Reese and family, Ron and Marie Plate and family, Delores and Johnny Johnson and family, Larry & Janeitta Shepherd and family, Doug & Karen Chickering and family, Sherri and Kirby Pothast and family.

Wanda was preceded in death by her parents, and her husband Terry, two brothers, J.W. Scott and Everett Scott, and three sisters, Opal Webster, Jewell Dean, and Agnes Scott.