Wayne Wylie Mull was born November 23, 1933 in Marshalltown, Iowa, the son of John and Gladys Rokes Mull. He was raised and educated in Marshalltown and graduated from the Marshalltown High School. On July 15th, 1989, Wayne was united in marriage to Marilyn Schaffer at their home in Hedrick, Iowa where he worked as a semi driver, as the Director of the Weatherization Department at S.I.E.D.A., and owned and operated Mull Construction Company. Wayne's passions in life was spending time with his children and attending their events and fishing for catfish, walleye, and stripers in the Des Moines River.

Wayne's memory is honored by his wife Marilyn Mull of Hedrick, a son, Jon Breitenbucher and his wife Melissa of Clarksville, TN, a daughter, Nichol Breitenbucher and fiance, Bobby Mallik of Champaign, IL, and two brothers, Jack Mull and wife Polly of Marshalltown and Robert Mull and wife Beverly of Oregon.

He was preceded in death by his parents, a son, Dennis Mull, three brothers, Ralph, Claude, and Morris Mull, and a sister, Myrna Taft.

A memorial has been established in Wayne's name.
